On May 7, 2014, Theodore Sobieski resigned as a member of the Board of Directors (the "Board") of CannaVEST Corp. (the "Company"). His resignation did not result from any disagreement with the Company. Mr. Sobieski resigned as a director due to business commitments, but he has accepted a role with the Company on its newly-created advisory board.

On May 7, 2014, the Board appointed Larry Raskin as a director of the Company to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Mr. Sobieski. There is no arrangement or understanding between Mr. Raskin and any other person pursuant to which Mr. Raskin was selected as a director of the Company. Mr. Raskin does not have any direct or indirect material interest in any existing or proposed transaction to which the Company is or may become a participant required to be disclosed by Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Other than the Company's formal plan for compensating its directors for their services, whereby each director, other than the Chairman of the Board, receives $500 per meeting of the Board attended, there are no plans, contracts or arrangements or amendments to any plans, contracts or arrangements entered into with Mr. Raskin in connection with his election to the Board, nor are there any grants or awards made to Mr. Raskin in connection therewith.
